Inspector General Kathleen Tighe
“There is no kind of dishonesty into which otherwise good people more easily and frequently fall than that of defrauding the government of its revenues...”

Benjamin Franklin
November 1767
Inspector General Act of 1978

...to prevent and detect fraud, waste and abuse and improve the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of Education Department programs and operations.
To promote the efficiency, effectiveness, and integrity of the Department's programs and operations, we conduct independent and objective audits, investigations, inspections, and other activities.
OIG Operational Components

• Audit Services
• Investigation Services
• Information Technology Audits and Computer Crime Investigations
FSA and OIG Coordination

The Office of Inspector General assists the Department in promoting the integrity of the Title IV programs.

• Review and comment on all regulations to suggest areas for improvement
• Regularly exchange information with FSA to identify current issues in compliance and abuse and coordinate oversight and investigatory activities when appropriate
• Issue Management Information Reports to alert the Department about serious fraud and corruption trends

Statutory and Regulatory Access to Records

• Under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, OIG can access any records available to the Department of Education in order to perform audits, investigations and inspections of Department programs and operations.

• The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) requires schools receiving funding from the Department of Education to protect the privacy of student education records. In many cases consent must be received from a parent or student before records can be disclosed.

• FERPA provides that consent is not required in order to disclose student records to the Office of Inspector General. The regulations provide that representatives of the Secretary, which include OIG, may have access without prior consent in connection with an audit, evaluation, or enforcement of legal requirements related to the Department’s programs.

FERPA regulations can be found at 34 CFR Part 99

Example of Criminal Investigation

- President of Galiano Career Academy, Michael Gagliano used a "diploma mill" owned by his wife, to make students eligible for student assistance programs.

- The Department of Education conducted a program review at Galiano Career Academy in 2009, and when reviewers saw suspicious activity, a criminal investigation was launched. OIG Special Agents later learned Michael Gagliano installed cameras and microphones prior to the Department of Education's visit so he could hear their conversations.
Example of Criminal Investigation

Former President of Galiano Career Academy Sentenced for Theft of Federal Funds, Obstruction of a Federal Audit, and Aggravated Identity Theft

• On February 25, 2014, in Orlando, FL, U.S. District Judge Roy B. Dalton sentenced Michael Gagliano (50, Sanford) to four years in federal prison for theft of government property, obstruction of a federal audit, and aggravated identity theft. As part of his sentence, the court also ordered restitution and entered a money judgment in the amount of $2,105,761.00, the proceeds of the charged criminal conduct. Gagliano pleaded guilty on August 16, 2013.
Example of Criminal Investigation

“Three Minnesota men convicted of conspiring to join Islamic State” U.S. Department of Justice, June 2016

The defendants were convicted of terrorism charges and some for using their federal financial aid to purchase plane tickets so that they could travel to the Middle East and join ISIL. These cases are the result of an investigation conducted by the FBI-led Joint Terrorism Task Force with support from ED/OIG.

“Two Orange County Men Convicted of Conspiring to Join ISIL; They also Engaged in Fraud to Finance One’s Trip to Syria” U.S. Department of Justice, June 2016
Criminal Penalties

Education Fraud
Title 20 U.S.C. § 1097 (a)

• Any person who knowingly and willfully embezzles, misapplies, steals, obtains by fraud, false statement, or forgery, or fails to refund any funds, assets, or property provided or insured under this subchapter and part C of subchapter I of chapter 34 of Title 42, or attempts to embezzle,….

• Persons convicted of a felony shall be fined not more than $20,000 or imprisoned for not more than 5 years, or both.

• Attempt is defined as, “an undertaking to do an act that entails more than mere preparation but does not result in the successful completion of the act.”
Other Criminal Statutes Used in Connection with OIG cases:

- 18 USC § 371  CONSPIRACY
- 18 USC § 1001  FALSE STATEMENTS
- 18 USC § 1341  MAIL FRAUD
- 18 USC § 1343  WIRE FRAUD
- 18 USC § 1344  BANK FRAUD
- 18 USC § 641  THEFT OF GOVERNMENT FUNDS
- 18 USC § 666  THEFT CONCERNING FEDERAL PROGRAMS
- 18 USC § 1030  COMPUTER FRAUD/EXCEEDING ACCESS
Civil False Claims Act

31 U.S.C. § 3729

- Knowingly presents, or causes to be presented, to the United States Government a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval (no proof of specific intent to defraud is required.)
- ...or makes, uses, or causes to be made or used, a false record or statement to get a false or fraudulent claim paid or to conceal, avoid, or decrease an obligation to the Government.
- Burden of Proof – “Preponderance of the Evidence” (More likely than not).
- Specific Intent to Defraud the Government not an Element.
- Liable for Civil Penalties of between $5.5K and $11K per count plus 3 times the amount of actual damages.
In 2015, a press conference was held by U.S. Attorney General Loretta Lynch to announce that a global civil settlement had been reached with EDMC for $95.5 million. The settlement was related to allegations of violations of the Incentive Compensation Ban and consumer-fraud allegations involving deceptive and misleading recruiting practices.
Why Report Fraud To the OIG?

- Statutory and regulatory requirements
- Ethical responsibility
- To deter others from committing fraud and abuse
- To protect the integrity of the Title IV Programs
- To avoid being part of a fraud scheme
- To avoid administrative action
- To avoid civil penalties
Standards of Administrative Capability

The Secretary considers an institution to have administrative capability if the institution:

(f) Develops and applies an adequate system to identify and resolve discrepancies in the information that the institution receives from different sources with respect to a student’s application for financial aid under Title IV.

(g) Refers to the Office of Inspector General…any credible information indicating that an applicant for Title IV, HEA program assistance may have engaged in fraud or other criminal misconduct in connection with his or her application.

Schools must also refer to the OIG any third-party servicer who may have engaged in fraud, breach of fiduciary responsibility, or other illegal conduct involving the FSA Programs and must include a requirement for the 3rd party service to report fraud to the OIG in their contract with that 3rd party servicer (34 C.F.R. § 668.25(c)(2)).
Criminal Liability

• 18 U.S.C. § 2, Aiding and Abetting

Whoever commits an offense against the United States or aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces or procures its commission, is punishable as a principal.

• 18 U.S.C. § 4, Misprision of a Felony

Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony cognizable by a court of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.
