COHEAO Annual Conference Agenda 2019
January 28-30, 2019

All Meetings and Sessions Are Located at the Ritz Carlton Pentagon City Hotel in Arlington, Virginia

Reasons to Attend: Please join COHEAO and professionals from around the country at our Annual Conference as we provide guidance from national experts on the future of institutional loans and other campus-based aid, regulatory issues, financial wellness, and what to expect from Congress and the Administration in 2019.

With so much uncertainty surrounding higher education and the federal government, this conference is the one to attend if you only attend one!

Attendees can also network with Washington officials and visit Capitol Hill to advocate directly to Congressional representatives on areas of importance to their organization.

Who Should Attend: Staff from Student Financial Services including the Business Office, Bursars, Financial Wellness Staff, and Financial Aid Professionals.

The 2019 Annual Conference Will Feature the Following Session Topics and Agenda Items:

- COHEAO's Washington Update
- Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA)
- The Impact of Mental Health On Student Success and Receivables
- Bankruptcy and PLUS Loan Claw-backs
- Your Perkins Portfolio
- Gap Financing-Income Share Agreements
- Developing and Managing an Institutional Loan Program
- An Update from the Department of Education
- Silent Auction and Reception to Benefit the COHEAO Scholarship Fund
- Visits to Congressional Offices

Tuesday, January 29th, will include a Financial Wellness Summit, featuring the following topics:

- Money Smart
- Skip the Google Search Process: Find Free Educational Resources To Engage your College Students at NGPF.com
- Cash Course

Wednesday, January 30th

- Visits to Congressional Offices
