

COHEAO

Coalition of Higher Education Assistance Organization

November Financial Wellness Newsletter

YOUR MONTHLY NEWS & UPDATES

COHEAO understands the importance of continuing education to our members and their institutions. As part of our mission in offering a variety of training topics and formats, we recognize the professional development of our members for participation in COHEAO events such as conferences, webinars, and Hill visits. All participants in such events are automatically enrolled to become CAP certified.

More Details

As part of our mission in offering a variety of training topics and formats, we recognize the professional development of our members for participation in COHEAO events such as conferences, webinars, and Hill visits. All participants in such events are automatically enrolled to become CAP Certified.

visit www.coheao.org
to learn more about the benefits of being CAP certified

Upcoming Events

COHEAO'S ANNUAL CONFERENCE & HILL DAY
February 11-12, 2020

University of California Washington Center

In addition to the professional development and networking opportunities, the COHEAO Annual Conference focuses on current legislative and regulatory issues and provides an opportunity for attendees to visit Capitol Hill and advocate directly to Congressional Representatives on areas of importance to your institution.

Register Today

Financial Literacy Webinar Public Service Loan Forgiveness

Session Description:

As many of you will have read, the most recent data on the Public service Loan Forgiveness program shows that only 1% of the borrowers who have submitted applications for forgiveness have been approved. While most of these rejections are due to either missing information or the borrowers misunderstanding of the programs requirements, the associated media storm has caused significant anxiety among borrowers pursuing the program.

Our Speaker:

Betsy Mayotte is the President of The Institute of Student Loan Advisors (TISLA), a non-profit whose mission is to ensure that all consumers have access to free student loan advice and dispute resolution. She has worked in the student loan industry for over twenty years in a compliance and advocacy capacity and is often quoted in the press on student loan issues, particularly on the topic of PSLF.

Registration Coming Soon

Get money smart. 25 tips to improve your financial well-being

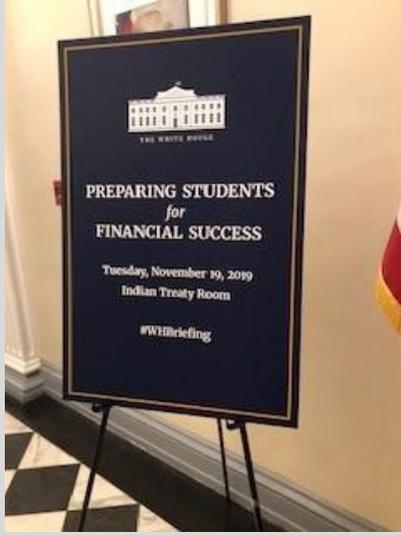

Your financial well-being, or overall financial situation, is unique to you. Often, we equate how well we're doing financially with how much money we make, our credit score, or overall net worth. In reality, your financial well-being is determined by factors that tell a larger story about your relationship to money.

Read More

Preparing Students for Financial Success Briefing

A group of stakeholders met on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 for a special briefing at the White House, to discuss important steps the Administration and institutions of higher education are taking to empower students to make more informed financial choices. Invited guests included leaders from higher education institutions, trade associations, financial education organizations, and government agencies. The Best Practices for Financial Literacy and Education at Institutions of Higher Education is a must read report published by the U.S. Financial Literacy and Education Commission. Secretary of the Treasury Steven Mnuchin, Secretary Betsy Devos and other leaders from the Administration addressed the group. To see more pictures from the briefing go to #WHBriefing or see more in our Spark!

Read The Full Report Here!